The meeting was opened with the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner" by the audience, and Rev. S. F. Matthews, the pastor, made a short address. A quartette composed of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas James, E. Lord and Dr. B. G. Beddee sang a selection and an address of welcome was delivered by Dr. Reddon. Responses were made by several of the soldiers, who related experiences of camp life. The old country, Village Bell quartette also sang so-Miss Clara Reed was the lections.

During the evening refreshments were served by the ladies of the society, the proceeds of which will be devoted to the building fund of the church, The "weighing" social was conducted on a novel plan, each person's weight being registered upon entering and in the distribution of the cards the lady or gentleman that procured the name a person whose weight exceeded their own, settled for the supper for The event was most enjoyable and liberally patronized.
